"Unofficially, I hear that many people inside the government-and that includes military intelligence and the Central Intelligence Agency-are very happy that this movie is being made. There is a younger generation of people that want some element of the truth to come out."

The Dallas Morning News
Sunday, April 14, 1991